

Your Highlands Ability Profile

Observation

This worksample measures the ability to notice and remember small visual details. The stronger your Observation, the more naturally able you are to make visual comparisons quickly or automatically and recall details, or notice body language and facial expressions. Observation supports studies and work roles in fields such as: Product, building, and safety inspection

- Insurance adjusting
- Appraising
- Quality control
- Visual critiquing
- Retailing
- Medicine, science, laboratory (e.g., examining tissue slides, observing small changes or variations in cells or appearance)
- Science
- Art (e.g., recalling details of sketches, parts of paintings and brushstrokes or styles; art restoration; art history)
- Detective and police work
- Writing that includes details of real-life scenes which add richness to descriptions